

Military Recruitment and Conscientious Objection: A Thematic Global Survey

LIST OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

MILITARY SERVICE AND RECRUITMENT

Voluntary and compulsory recruitment

Table 1: Dates of introduction / abolition of obligatory military service

Table 2: Proportion of conscripts in armed forces 2004

Before call-up: registration and medical examination

Selection procedure

Call-up and induction

Other sorts of recruitment

MILITARY SERVICE IN PRACTICE

How long does it last?

Table 3: Changes in the duration of basic obligatory military service since 1990

Table 4: Differential lengths of obligatory military service

What does it entail?

Conditions encountered

After military service: documentation

After military service: reserve obligations

PERSONS LIABLE TO RECRUITMENT

Gender

Age

Table 5: Military service ages

Military training in schools

Citizens abroad and foreign residents

Exemptions and deferments

Peacetime and wartime

Who actually serves?

Table 6: Those performing obligatory military service as a proportion of the relevant age group

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTION: THE INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTION IN PRACTICE

Constitutional and legislative acknowledgment of conscientious objection

Table 7: Legal recognition of conscientious objection

Legal recognition does not define the existence of conscientious objection

However the issue is not how easy it is to avoid military service

Conscientious objection may develop at any time

At First Registration

Before call up

Table 8: Time/status limits for application for recognition as a conscientious objector

During compulsory military service

Among those who have joined the military voluntarily.	Among reservists
Information about the provisions for conscientious objection	Nature and composition of body which decides on recognition of Conscientious Objector status
Table 9: Nature and composition of body which decides on recognition of Conscientious Objector status
Procedure
Table 10: Procedure for recognition of Conscientious Objector status
Acceptance without enquiry?
On what grounds can applications be turned down?
Table 11: Grounds for rejection of application
Are reasons given for an adverse decision? Is there a right of appeal? Who to?
Table 12: Appeal possibilities
What happens when the claim is (finally) rejected?
Table 13: Penalties for refusal of military service
Children
Women
Documentation for civil purposes
The situation in time of war
Selective objection

ALTERNATIVE SERVICE

The concept of alternative service	What forms of alternative service are available?
Table 14: Nature of alternative service placements
Administration of alternative service
Table 15: Administration of alternative service
Table 16: Arrangements for alternative service
Where can alternative service be performed? - Employing organisations
Allocation to placements
How does the duration of alternative service compare with that of military service?
Table 17: Relative lengths of military service and civilian alternative service
Remuneration and other terms of service
General
Disciplinary proceedings
Reserve obligations

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY